Open Access: The obligations of the grant agreement related to open access apply to all peer-reviewed scientific publications related to results from the project. This means in particular that they apply regardless whether the underlying research has been supported in whole or only in part by the ERC.

In addition, when you deposit your publications in a repository, make sure that you enter the required metadata, especially the funding programme (Horizon Europe), the ERC grant number and the grant acronym, so that your publications can be linked to the ERC project.

Acknowledge the ERC funding as follows: This project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon Europe ERC Synergy Grant programme under grant agreement No 101118693 - WHIRLS. Views and opinions expressed are however those of the author(s) only and do not necessarily reflect those of the European Union or European Research Council Executive Agency. Neither the European Union nor the granting authority can be held responsible for them.

At publication time, immediately deposit the publication in open access in a trusted repository:

Option 1: If you publish in a full open access journal or book, or on a full open access publishing platform: (i) Publishing fees (including APCs/BPCs, but also e.g. page charges or colour charges) are eligible costs if incurred during the lifetime of your project and in line with the provisions of your grant agreement. This also applies to books to the extent that they cover the first digital open access edition of the book. Printing fees for monographs and other books are NOT eligible. (ii) Deposit the publication (generally the VoR) in a trusted repository before or at publication time and provide immediate open access to it through the repository.

Option 2: If you publish in a subscription or hybrid journal, in a book for which some parts are not open access, or on a publishing platform that does not provide all of its scholarly content in open access: (i) Self-archive the publication (usually the AAM) in a trusted repository before or at publication time and provide immediate open access to it through the repository, under a licence that is among those permitted by the grant agreement. (ii) Note that publishing fees of any kind (APCs/BPCs but also page charges, colour charges etc.) are not eligible costs for the ERC. (iii) If publishing in a hybrid journal, your costs may be covered by a transformative agreement. * Note that so-called 'transformative journals' are considered to be ordinary hybrid journals (no exceptional rules concerning eligibility of publishing fees).
